

BLUE	Hon. Dr. Lois E. Hole (2000-2005) Her Honour was nicknamed the "Queen of Hugs"	Hon. John Percy Page (1959 - 1966) His Honour coached The Edmonton Grads, an Alberta Women's basketball team, at the Olympic level in 1924, 1928, 1932 and 1936.	RED
Hon. John Campbell Bowen (1937-1950) Hon. Bowen was a twin. He and his brother, James, were the eldest of seven children.			Hon. Gordon Towers (1991-1996) His Honour was known for reciting poetry in the House of Commons when he served as a Member of Parliament from 1972 to 1988.
Hon. Dr. J.W. Grant MacEwan (1966-1974) His Honour (as in Grant MacEwan University) was known as the Travelling Lieutenant Governor.			Hon. Norman L. Kwong (2005-2010) Due to his football career, Hon. Kwong was known as the China Clipper.
YELLOW	Hon. John James Bowlen (1950-1959) Hon. Bowlen was a rancher and a Vice-Regal Cowboy.	Hon. Dr. Robert George Brett (1915-1925) One of his last official duties was to take part in the launch of long-distance telephone services between Edmonton and parts of the US.	GREEN