

BLUE

Hon.
Frank
Lynch-Staunton
(1979-1985)

After being sworn in, he said, "...this province... go[es] for cowboys and Indians... This time the Indian came first and I only hope the cowboy can do the wonderful job that the Indian did before him."

He was a Supreme Court judge who believed in capital punishment. His nickname was "the Hanging Judge"!

Hon.
William
L. Walsh
(1937-1936)

RED

Hon.
W. Helen Hunley
(1985-1997)

She was posted to England during World War II and recalls the Royal Family as being "inspirational" as they stayed in London during the air raids.

Hon.
Col. Philip
Primrose
(1936-1937)

He was ill for most of his term and was the first Lieutenant Governor to die in office. He was given a state funeral.

For the 1977 Speech from the Throne, Hon. Steinhauser wore a First Nations headdress.

Hon.
Ralph
Steinmauer
(1974-1979)

Hon.
Ethel
commanded an infantry unit of Grizzlies when he served in the military. The Grizzly is an armoured tank.

Hon.
Col. (Ret'd)
Donald S. Ethell
(2010 to 2015)

YELLOW

Hon.
Dr. William
Egbert
(1925-1937)

The only Lieutenant Governor, in Alberta's history, to be sworn in outside of Edmonton. His ceremony took place in Calgary.

When he was appointed Lieutenant Governor, Alberta became a province!

Hon.
Vicars Bulyea
(1905-1915)

GREEN