

Rhyming Poem: Florence LaDue

Katelyn Onwuka

There was a girl named Florence LaDue
Who was an awesome person, that is true
And her dreams she loved to pursue!
She was a famous trick roper
For her dreams she was not a joker
But she was very famous and lots of people knew her
She was sometimes called "The First Lady of the Stampede"
She was happy in her life indeed
And was glad to take her life at her own speed
Her mother died when she was a baby
And Florence thought that she maybe
Alone without her mother
She got married to Guy Weadick
2 weeks after they met they got married real quick
And were together in 1906
Her real name is Grace Bensell
And as a trick roper she did well
But when she died she had to say farewell
